DECLARATION OF ATTESTATION

I, Ya-Fen Xu, with the address of Suite 1410, CITIC Square, 1168 Nanjing Road West, Shanghai, 200041, China, do hereby solemnly declare and affirm that:

1. I am an attorney admitted to practice laws in the People's Republic of China (hereinafter "PRC") since 2001. I am the counsel acting for Molex Interconnect (Shanghai) Co., Ltd. ("Molex (Shanghai)") on the labor dispute with Hsieh Guang-Rung, the details of which are described below.
2. This Declaration is made on the basis of (1) my personal knowledge of the relevant information; and (2) the laws of PRC.
3. On July 1, 2002, Mr. Hsieh Guang-Rung and Molex (Shanghai) entered into a one-year employment agreement. However, Mr. Hsieh has been absent from work without leave since January 3, 2003, and later on January 13, 2003, he sent e-mail to Molex (Shanghai) declaring that he intended to terminate the employment agreement. Since then, Mr. Hsieh has never contacted Molex (Shanghai).

According to the PRC law, the employment agreement shall terminate 30 days after the date the employee sending a written notice to such effect. Therefore, the employment agreement between Mr. Hsieh and Molex (Shanghai) has terminated on February 13, 2003.

Since Mr. Hsieh failed to pay the training fee to Molex (Shanghai) pursuant to the agreement between him and Molex (Shanghai) and the PRC laws for the training program arranged and funded by Molex (Shanghai), Molex (Shanghai) filed a suit against Mr. Hsieh with the PRC court. In this lawsuit, Mr. Hsieh engaged an attorney to act on his behalf, and he personally has never shown during the course of the court proceedings. Despite the endeavor of the judge and Molex (Shanghai) to contact Mr. Hsieh directly, his attorney refused to disclose the whereabouts of Mr. Hsieh. The lawsuit was ultimately concluded by settlement in court. To the best of my knowledge, the whereabouts of Mr. Hsieh is still unknown as of today.

4. I was advised by Molex (Shanghai) that Mr. Hsieh was the inventor of those service inventions filed in the United States under the application numbers: (1) A3/126US; and (2) A3/098US. Under the PRC Patent Law, the right to apply for patent on service invention shall vest in the employer.
5. In my capacity as counsel for Molex (Shanghai) in this lawsuit, I have personally participated in the entire court proceedings, including the investigation procedure. I do hereby declare that the foregoing is true and correct to my best knowledge, and hereby sign this Declaration on this ____ day of December, 2003.
